

Dear Students

We would like to invite you to take part in this international cooking competition entitled

My favourite pancakes

We organize this competition to make you:

- become more open when speaking English
- practise English in a meaningful way
- become more independent when using technology
- get to know other students from our partner countries

We also want to make learning more interesting, entertaining, and engaging ☺

The competition will take place in the partner schools of the
Let me show you how to prepare my favourite dish
